

Sustainable development in strategies and activities of Polish universities

Conference in the form of webinar

Date: 22.03.2021, 12:00 - 14:30

Welcome word to the participants:

Professor Jacek Prokop Vice-Rector for International Cooperation SGH Warsaw School of Economics.

Assoc. prof SGH Anna Visvizi, Head of the International Economic Policy Chair Institute for Foreign Studies SGH

"The importance of action in the name of social values for universities and the timeless ethos of the academy - ethical, practical and formal-image considerations" - Assoc.Prof SGH Agnieszka Domańska (International Economic Policy Chair ISM, SGH)

"The Millennium Development Goals - How can higher education institutions help achieve them?" Katarzyna Baraniecka (SGH student, Head of the Student Scientific Circle „PRIME”)

Speeches of the representatives of Polish universities (members of the Polish Chapter PRME Steering Committee)

Interdepartmental faculty „Ecobusiness” as an example of education for sustainable development at the University of Białystok - professor Dariusz Kielczewski, Department of Social and Economic Development, Head of the Chair of the Sustainable Development, University of Białystok

Ecobureau's („Ekobiuro”) activity as an example of practical implementation of ecological values in the university life - prof. Joanna Kostecka, Institute of Agricultural Sciences, Land Management and Environmental Protection – Head of the Institute, College of Natural Sciences University of Rzeszów

Examples of Good Practice of University Social Responsibility at the University of Gdańsk - Associate Professor Barbara Pawłowska, Faculty of Economics Chair of Transport Economics, University of Gdańsk

Marriage of economic schools with social entrepreneurship - an unrealistic pipe dream or a promising strategy? Example of Poznań University of Economics - dr Anna Waligóra Assistant Professor, Representative of the Rector for Corporate Social Responsibility of the University Department of Sociology and Business Ethics, Poznań University of Economics and Business

Green Team at Wrocław University of Economics - as a social innovation for sustainable development – Assoc. Prof Bożena Ryszawska, Department of Corporate and Public Finance, Wrocław University of Economics

Good practices for the realization of sustainable development goals on the example of the Faculty of Economics of the University of Warmia and Mazury in Olsztyn - Associate

Professor Renata Marks-Bielska, Faculty of Economic Sciences University of Warmia and Mazury

Social and environmental impact reporting at Cracow University of Economics - dr Monika Sady, Leader of the Team for Social and Environmental Development Cracow University of Economics and Business

Building SGH social responsibility solutions in dialogue with all stakeholders - Prof. Halina Brdulak, Department of International Management, Chair of the Chancellor's Commission on University Social Responsibility, SGH Warsaw School of Economics.

Discussion: "Sustainable development in strategies and activities of Polish universities - perspectives, plans and ideas for the future - the perspective of academics and students".

Discussion in the spirit and under the motto: "What can we do together?"

In the discussion will participate, in addition to the above-mentioned speakers, among others. Prof. US dr hab. Barbara Kryk (Uniwersytet Szczeciński), Faculty of Economic Sciences and Management, Polish Association of Environmental and Natural Resource Economists University of Szczecin, dr Anna Moraczewska, Faculty of Political Science and Journalism Maria Curie-Skłodowska University in Lublin, Dr Mirosława Witkowska-Dąbrowska, Dr Agnieszka Napiórkowska-Baryła UWM Olsztyn, students of SGH Warsaw School of Economics and other higher education institutions in Poland.