1. The C4CL Playbook

a conceptual framework for teaching and learning

[from static book to accessible, searchable, open access education resource (OER),

2. Teaching resources in key subject matter areas

3. A pedagogical paper to present at RMER 2025

PROJECT DEVELOPMENT

AIMS + KEY PRINCIPLES

PLAYBOOK

TEMPLATES

CONCEPTUAL FRAMEWORK | WHY? WHAT? HOW?

ANA MARGARIDA SIMAENS

PROJECT AIMS

1. to support faculty in the classroom to incorporate SDG 13 into their teaching without becoming climate experts.
2. at least 3 subject areas with material including case studies, class discussions, class assignments, elective classes, as well as careful selection of prescribed readings.

INTRODUCING THE GROUP DISCUSSIONS

LAURA STEELE

Key questions for group break-out discussions

1. What resources and actions are needed to complete the Playbook as a collective effort with at least 3 subject areas completed by end 2025?
1. How do we leverage our networks collectively to create a strategy for knowledge mobilisation to ensure continuity through broadening and deepening the resources and create a dynamic resource?
2. How can we use the PRME Commons Platform as an Open Education Resource (OER) that is accessible, searchable, adaptable, and dynamic?
