2023 GLOBAL FORUM

CONNECTING FOR IMPACT WORLDWIDE

13 - 14 June 2023
New York, USA
Hybrid Event

Part of Responsible Management Education Week
12 - 16 June 2023
DISCLAIMER

The Principles for Responsible Management Education will gather business school leaders, faculty, students, businesses and sustainable development organizations for a Responsible Management Education Week, that will take place on 12 - 16 June 2023, in New York (USA), to advance responsible management education and its impact worldwide.

The 11th Edition of PRME Global Forum will be part of this week, with the main theme “Connecting for Impact Worldwide”. taking place on 13 - 14 June in a global debate on how business education can help advance the sustainable development agenda worldwide inviting all participants to connect for pedagogical impact, for climate impact, for digital impact and for leadership impact. In anticipation of the 2023 PRME Global Forum, a PRME international community exclusive gathering will take place on 12 June, with several dedicated sessions of PRME community’s work and advances and interactive sessions, such as the (i5) workshop, a disruptive learning program that brings novelty to SDG leadership education.

The Principles for Responsible Management Education invited partner organizations to help live out the theme “Connecting for Impact Worldwide” with surrounding events to make up a full week of impact in different topics for discussion around management education, such as The NBS Sustainability Centres Community and the MIT Sloan Sustainability Initiative in a dedicated day on systemic change for sustainability on 15 June, Wharton School of the University of Pennsylvania, supported by the Tipping Point Fund on Impact Investing, in a dedicated morning for an exclusive conversation on the ESGs in business school research and education on 16 June, and Gabelli School of Business at Fordham University and The Center for Humanistic Management for an impactful conversation during the morning of the same day on “Transforming Business Education”, bringing key stakeholders of the business education universe together including business organizations, academic institutions, as well as ranking and rating groups along with students, media and other partners.

TOGETHER, EDUCATIONAL PLAYERS HOLD THE POWER TO TRANSFORM THE MANAGEMENT EDUCATION LANDSCAPE TO DEVELOP AND GROW MORE LOCALLY AND GLOBALLY RESPONSIBLE MANAGERS.
