Discover What's New at 2027 RME Week

Taking place 30 June–3 July at Sunway Business School, Sunway University in Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia, 2027 Responsible Management Education (RME) Week introduces a programme designed to strengthen connections across the PRME community.

Under the theme Bridging a Changing World, the week will bring together the PRME Asia Forum, PRME Global Forum, and Integration Day, alongside community and cultural activities, including PRME's 20th Anniversary Reception. With opportunities for knowledge exchange and collaboration across regions and disciplines, RME Week will create space to connect global priorities with local action.

PRME Chapter ASEAN+ & Africa: Call for Book Chapters

PRME Chapter Africa and PRME Chapter ASEAN+ invite original empirical, conceptual, and practice-based contributions that generate new knowledge from Global South contexts and demonstrate how responsibility can be meaningfully embedded in management education through innovative pedagogies, institutional transformation, curriculum development, cross-sector collaboration, and policy initiatives.

We particularly welcome empirical research, conceptual and theoretical papers, institutional and teaching case studies, pedagogical innovations, and policy perspectives that combine rigorous scholarship with practical insights for educators, institutions, policymakers, and the wider PRME community.

Submit your abstract by 15 November >>>

Latest from the UN

UN Day: A symbol of hope for global unity

Observed annually on 24 October, United Nations Day marks the anniversary of the UN Charter's entry into force in 1945 and the official founding of the United Nations. The day offered an opportunity to reflect on the UN's enduring mission, reaffirm the purposes and principles of the Charter, and renew commitment to international cooperation and a more peaceful, just, and sustainable world.
