Community Consultations on PRME: Have your ideas heard!

During the 2023 PRME Global Forum, the PRME Board Chair, Dr. Tima Bansal, updated the PRME community about the PRME Principles Refresh process, detailing the draft proposal for refreshed PRME Principles and explaining the next steps before the final review and approval by the PRME Board on October 2023.

The PRME Principles Task Force (PPTF) will continue its extensive community consultation efforts until October by collecting input from individuals through a new survey and collective feedback from the PRME Chapters.

These two channels enable us to continue gathering individual ideas as well as group thinking in a diverse and geographically representative manner. We count on your contributions in building our new Principles, and we look forward to hearing your voice in this process!

THE IMPACTFUL FIVE (i5) PROJECT

Community Workshops & Dialogues

PRME Secretariat is thrilled to offer a new series of community training workshops for PRME Signatory Members that aim to reimagine the way education is approached. The Impactful Five \(i5\) Project seeks to provide an opportunity for creative engagement with challenging subject-matter in the classroom.

This is a remarkable opportunity for PRME Signatory members to elevate their teaching practices and advance their institutions' commitment to responsible management education.

For those who have already attended an i5 Workshop (in any pilot/public offering), PRME Secretariat and Project Zero will also host a series of Back to School: i5 Cafe dialogues to further learning!

Chapter Spotlight

PRME Principles for Responsible Management Education CHAPTER INDIA

In July, a local media outlet published an article covering one of the 6 city-level meetings PRME Chapter India is across the country this year. Chair of PRME Chapter India, Dr. Chandrika Parmar, moderated the session on 24 July in Jaipur with more than 400 students present. She discussed the work of PRME and the importance of bringing sustainable development into the management pedagogy, referencing the Blueprint for SDG Integration as a helpful resource in doing so.

A similar meeting took place on 7 July in New Delhi hosted by BIMTECH on "Building Sustainable Development Goals into Business Education: Prioritizing Quality Education (SDG-4) and Gender Equality." The recording for the Delhi meeting can be found here and the related news article here. Meetings for Hyderabad and Goa are planned for later in 2023. These events are part of a series of city-level meetings PRME Chapter India is pursuing to bring responsible management education throughout India.
