Meet the New PGS Leadership

The PRME Secretariat is thrilled to announce the new cohort of PRME Global Students (PGS) Regional Leaders, who represent eighteen PRME Signatory Members in sixteen countries.

The PGS Regional Leaders are worldwide young leaders driving sustainability-oriented student organizations that are part of the PRME Global Students Network (PGSN), which connects and advocates for student-led sustainability initiatives. They are responsible for coordinating activities, organizing events, and acting as advocates for sustainability within their universities and communities.

The new cohort of PGS Regional Leaders includes:

- Student from University of Technology, Sydney, and Co-Chair of the PGS Australia/New Zealand Chapter, Dr. Chamila Perera.
- Student from University of Canterbury, Co-Chair of the PGS Australia/New Zealand Chapter, Dr. Joya Kemper.
- Student from The University of Queensland, and Chair of the PGS Australia/New Zealand Chapter, Neil Taylor.
- Student from Singapore Management University, Member of the PGS Asia Chapter, Ms. Caecilia Tan.
- Student from Swinburne University of Technology, Member of the PGS Asia Chapter, Ms. Shriya Chandra.
- Student from The University of Hong Kong, Member of the PGS Asia Chapter, Ms. Iliana Wu.

The PGS Regional Leaders are responsible for connecting with PRME Global Students on their respective campuses, collaborating with other leaders, and promoting sustainability initiatives. They play a crucial role in fostering a culture of sustainability and increasing awareness among their peers.

Submit an Abstract

PRME has opened its call for abstracts for the 11th Responsible Management Education (RME) Conference, which will be held from 27 to 30 August 2024 in Dublin, Ireland. The conference is a prime opportunity for PRME Signatory Members to showcase their research and practices related to sustainable management and education.

The 11th RME Conference will focus on the theme of "Building a Sustainable Future Through Education and Practice." It aims to bring together academics, practitioners, and policymakers from around the world to discuss the latest advancements in sustainable management education and to explore strategies for fostering a sustainable future.

Abstract submission opens on 16 August and closes on 16 October 2023. Visit the PRME website for more information on how to submit your abstract.

Learn More & Register Now

The conference will feature keynote speeches, panel discussions, roundtable sessions, and workshops. It will also provide a platform for networking and collaboration among participants from various sectors.

The conference fee is €595 for PRME Signatory Members and €995 for non-Signatory Members. Early bird registration rates are available until 30 June 2023.

For more information, visit the PRME website or contact the PRME Secretariat at info@unprme.org.

Meet the Students

The PRME Regional Leaders will be participating in the PRME Global Students Network (PGSN) Annual Leadership Summit, which will be held from 25 to 27 August 2023 in the Philippines. The summit will bring together sustainability-oriented student leaders from around the world to share best practices, network, and learn from each other.

The summit will feature keynote speeches, panel discussions, and workshops. It will provide a platform for networking and collaboration among participants from various sectors.

The summit fee is $495 for PRME Signatory Members and $795 for non-Signatory Members. Early bird registration rates are available until 30 June 2023.

For more information, visit the PRME website or contact the PRME Secretariat at info@unprme.org.

Upcoming Events

- 2023 UN Global Compact Leadership Network Meeting, 8-9 August 2023.

For more information, visit the PRME website or contact the PRME Secretariat at info@unprme.org.